

Why I love UX?

During my degree I was taught to design enterprise systems centred around its users through the use of UML, User Profiling and Requirements Capturing.

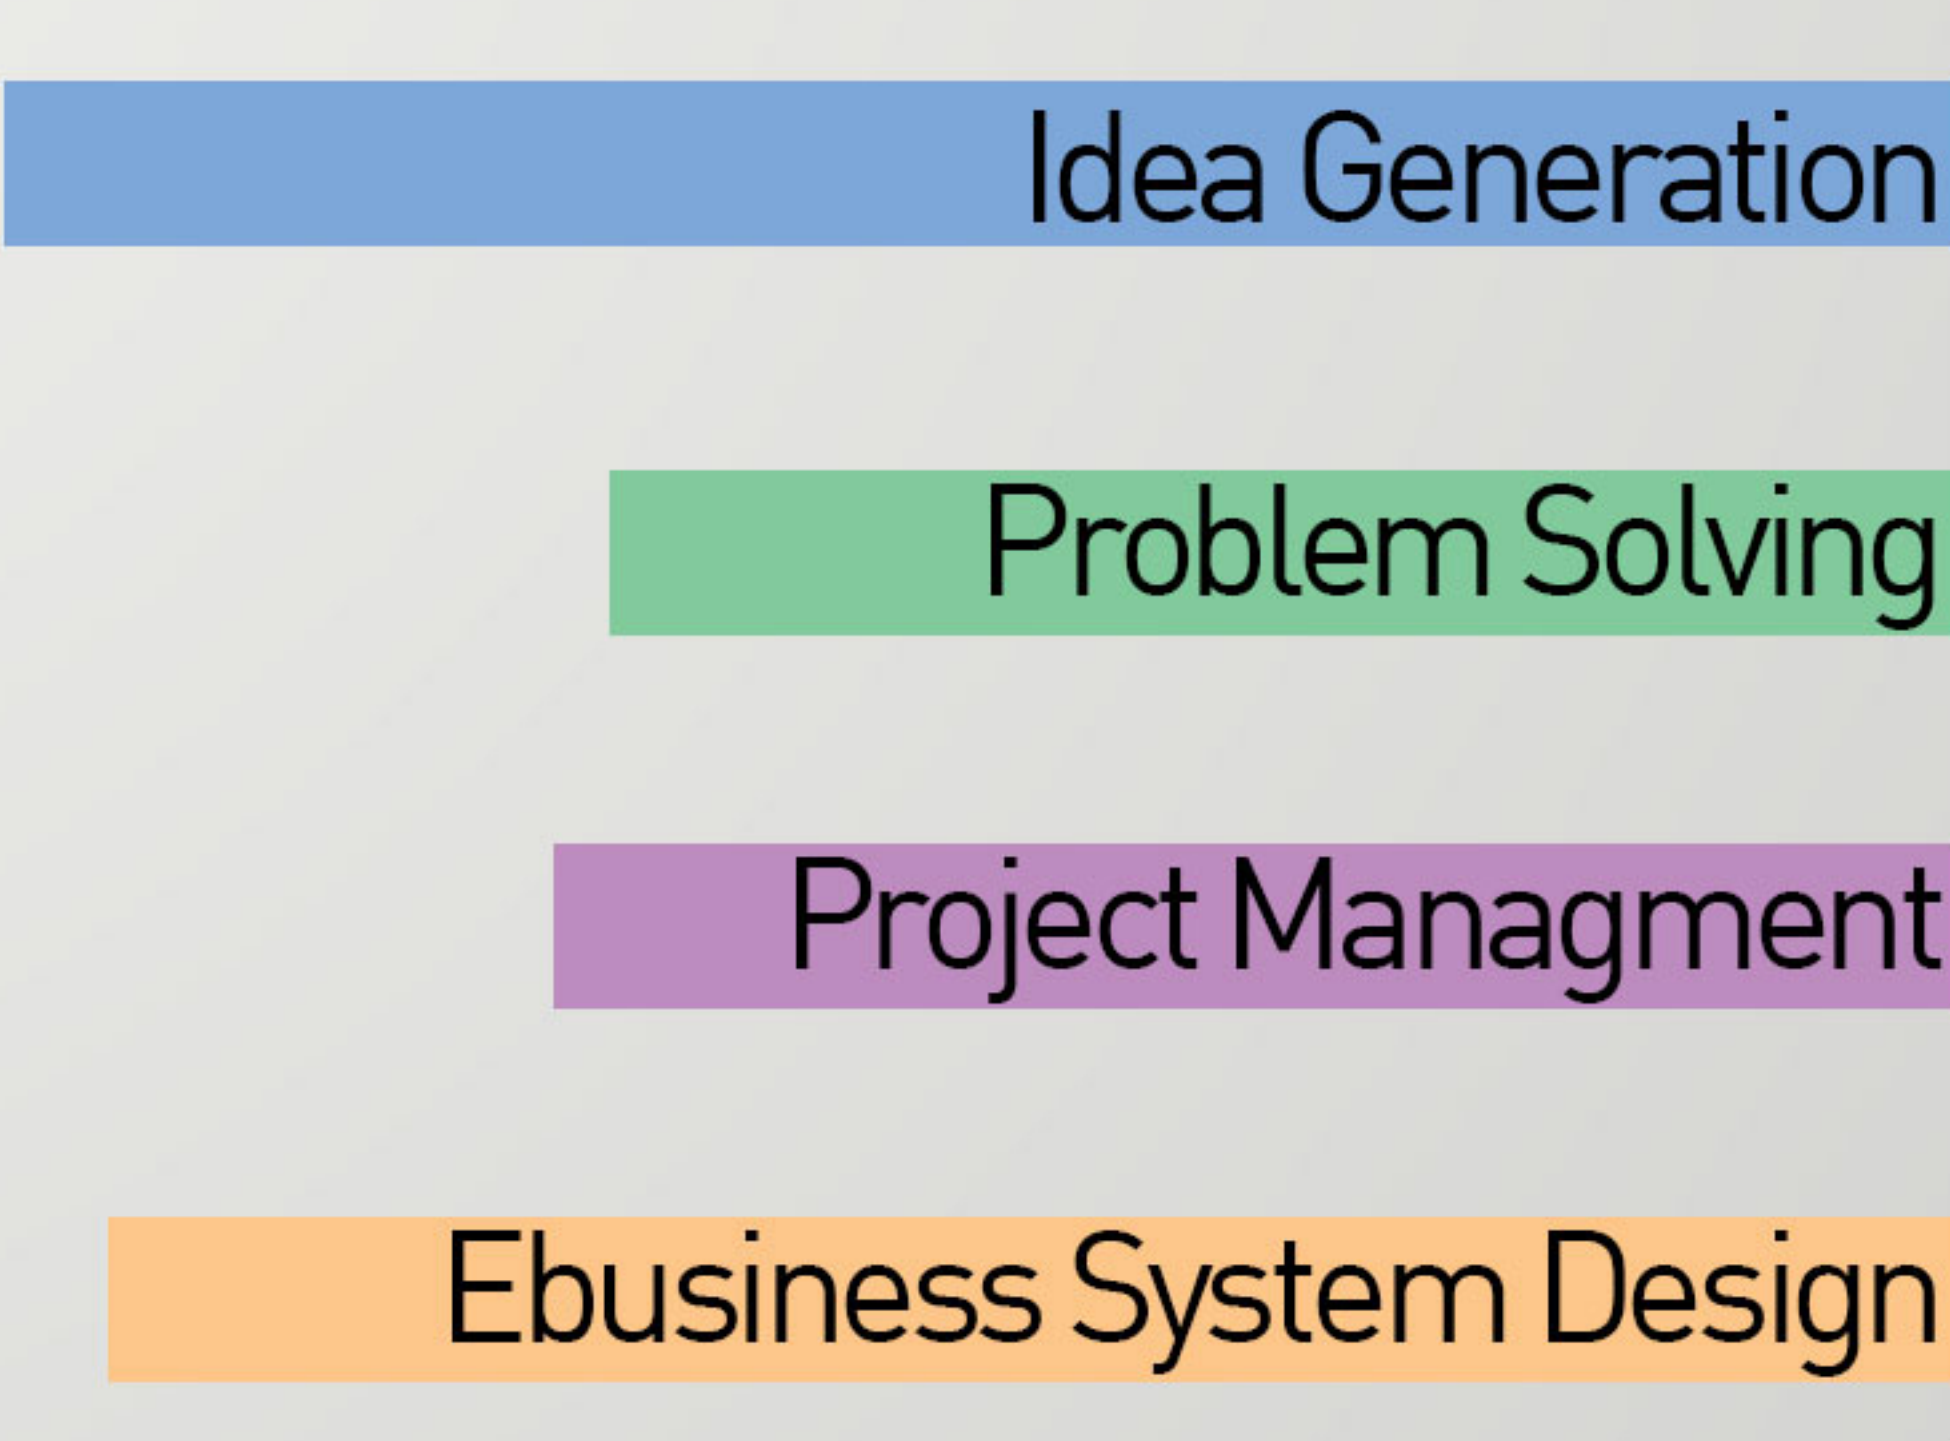

Over the last year I have developed an understanding and skills in UI Design and wire-framing. This has resulted in an understanding and interest in all of the key discipline in UX Design (left).

I love nothing more than to find an innovative solution to the benefit of the user in helping them achieve their goal.

Education

1st Class	University of Liverpool - MSc E-business Systems and Strategy
Distinction	University of Liverpool BSc E-business Systems

Skills

Experience

